Pastor's Perspective...

by Pastor Dan Hansen

...May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me." John 17:23

1) On our unity in Christ...

We've seen what a challenge it was for the early church to stay unified as we've been looking at the book of Acts in this Easter season--the tension between the Jews and Greeks, the tension between Paul and Peter, Paul and the Jerusalem council, Paul and Barnabas. Yet the Holy Spirit holds them together through prayer. In this verse, Jesus prays for the unity of his followers, the future church. As loyal as his followers were to him, he knew that they could easily be divided by ego and envy and hurt feelings. But he also knew that they could accomplish much more as the body of Christ, than they could as just a collection of individuals. How true!

2) On our Confirmation Sunday...

What a wonderful weekend of worship we had as we affirmed the baptism of 17 eighth graders. Many thanks to Nanette, our Director of Christian Education, and all of her education helpers and teachers for their hard work! We had a great day and everything was well organized. It's always an inspiration to hear the faith expressed by these young people.

3) On staff additions and transitions...

A big thank you to Mandy Wormke and her Nursery Task Force in reviewing the needs of our nursery ministry! We will miss Mandy's leadership as Nursery Coordinator as she seeks to move on to other ministry activities in our church. Although it will be hard to replace Mandy, we hope to have a new Nursery Coordinator on board by July 1. If interested, please contact Mandy or the church office.

Regarding our new Parish Associate position...our Hiring Committee is busy reviewing resumes and we are pleased to have nine applicants thus far. For questions, please contact Tracy Rothe who is chairing this committee or members Federico Ruiz, Hanorah Anderson, Jill Krantz, or myself. We hope to have this position filled by August or September. We appreciate your prayers.

4) "Remembering the Sabbath" this summer...

Please don't take the summer off from church--join us for worship and Sunday school! Nanette has worked hard on her "Summer of Gifts" theme which is back by "popular demand" for our Summer Sunday School. Make it a priority to grow with us this summer. Kris and the Youth Committee have lots of youth activities on the calendar, and we have an exciting summer of worship planned while our worship teams continue their rotation of worship leadership.

Most of all, don't forget to worship as you vacation. I suspect that nothing makes a bigger impression on our kids than what we do with our Sundays when we don't have to be there--such as when we don't have choir or Sunday school or Sunday Servant responsibilities. One of the things I really enjoy when I have a Sunday off is worshipping at other churches. Perhaps God will give you some great ideas to bring back home to us!

5) On our Turkey trip...

You've already heard some stories in sermons and children's sermons and we hope you'll join us as we tell more during Sunday School on June 24. Additionally Nanette plans to have "Paul's Missionary Journeys" as a theme for our Fall Sunday School program and we hope to have "John's Letters to the Seven Churches" as our theme for Lent next spring. Truly the bible comes alive when you stand where the Apostle Paul and Saint John and the early church lived out their faith.

Pastor Dan

Altar Care Ministry

Communion Help

We need a few good souls to clean up after communion following the 11 a.m. service on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. Most folks who do this service choose to always do it the same Sunday of the month, though that is not absolutely necessary. When our regulars need a substitute, we're always happy to find one. We also need people who are willing to set up and clean up for the 8:15 a.m. service and for the 11 a.m. service whenever there is a fifth Sunday in the month. If this appeals to you, if you feel called, if you have questions, please call Chris Goble at 303-834-8121.

Flowers for the Altar

When you sign up to provide flowers for worship, remember that the cost is $35. You may place your payment in the offering, plate, mail it in, or leave it in the church office. Be sure to write "Altar Flowers" in the memo portion of your check. You can take the flowers home after the 11 a.m. service if you like.

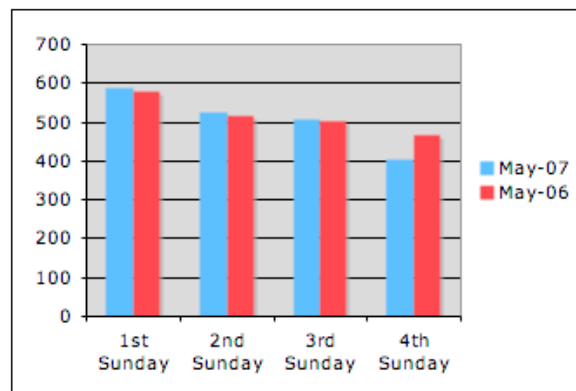

The florist credits us for any vases that are returned, so if you'd like to recycle your vases, bring them to church and set them on the counter in the sacristy. Phyllis Holst takes them back to the florist for us. By the way, if you have old florist vases at home, our florist is happy to take any florist vases, whether they came with FCLC altar flowers or not, and they credit us appropriately.

Blessings,
Chris Goble

by Pastor Bruce Welander

It is hard for me to believe that, as of this month, I have been at Faith Community four years. In 2003, I agreed to fill in for Pastor Dan while he was on sabbatical in June, July and August. I looked forward to what promised to be an interesting and pleasant three months. Now, four years later.... I'm glad that, four years later, I am still here.

Faith Community Lutheran Church is a wonderful place to be, any time of year. But let me tell you what I now particularly look forward to as I begin my fifth summer here.

First, worship, as always, is at the heart of things. A particularly delightful summer custom at Faith Community is our 8:15 a.m. outdoor service. We have a great location for this, and it's an enjoyable change of pace as we experience the beauty of a Colorado morning while praising God and hearing his word. Also, keep in mind that one of the main reasons why we have a Saturday evening service is to make worship possible for people who will be gone all day Sunday. With that, plus our 11 a.m. Sunday service in the air-conditioned comfort of our beautiful Sanctuary, delightful opportunities for worship continue to abound.

Also, again this summer I look forward to a really fresh, exciting and innovative series of sessions during our education hour (Sundays, 9:45 – 10:45 a.m.). For the second year now, our "Summer of Gifts" will feature a great variety of course offerings from a number of our members. What an array of topics! I've just been reading the catalog of courses, and I've come to the conclusion that we are perhaps the only church in the country where there will be opportunities this summer – just to sample a few sessions at random – to overcome one's fear of flying, deal with children who are picky eaters, learn French or Spanish, collect and eat bugs, laugh with Christian comedians, join an old-fashioned hymn sing, learn to share one's faith more effectively, knit, clown, drink coffee (in a Sunday School session called "Starbucks"?), and on and on.

Honestly, what I have mentioned is purely at random. I have just let my eyes fall on the first things I see in several pages of the catalog. There is much, much more.

Compared to all of those exciting things, my own involvement will be pretty straight-laced this summer, but I think it will provide something of a theological rationale for the rest of our summer opportunities. A few months ago, I began a course on key Lutheran teachings that I call "Here We Stand: What Lutherans Believe and Why." This summer I will be teaching just five sessions of that course, but in those five sessions we will be discovering the difference the Protestant Reformation made in seeing with new, more Biblical eyes, matters like the "callings" and "gifts" and even "priesthood" of all believers in Christ.

Thanks to the moving of the Holy Spirit in the Reformation, we can look with new eyes at our daily life and work, and what it means to have gifts and even to function as "priests"...every one of us! So if you are interested in a Lutheran theology of daily life, you might find it helpful to spend a few summer hours in looking at what Martin Luther and other Reformers have uncovered.

Also... a number of people have asked about the recent trip to Turkey that 26 of us took in April. One of the Summer Sunday School classes – namely on June 24 – will focus on this. Several people who made the pilgrimage will be there to explain and show pictures. It should be fun.

Whatever your plans this summer, may God give you many experiences of rest, renewal and re-creation. It's a wonderful time of year.... and a great time for worship and Christian growth.

Blessings, in Christ,

Pastor Bruce Welander

Attention All Women!

The Women of Faith Conference for 2007 will be held September 21-22 at the Pepsi Center in Denver. The theme this year is "Amazing Freedom." We had such a blast last year. I wanted to ensure that you make room for this on your fall calendar! Along with veteran speakers like Luci Swindoll, Patsy Clairmont and Marilyn Meberg, special guests will include Allison Allen, Carol Kent and singing sensation Nicole C. Mullen! There will also be a Pre-Conference day with Beth Moore. How could you ask for anything more!!

I am looking at registering us soon to get the best seating possible. I need to know how many are willing to make this journey with me. Those interested in staying in Denver on Friday night, the 21st, will also need to give me a "heads-up" as I will work on hotel reservations.

You can go online to www.womenoffaith.com to get the details.

Please email Diane Sell at diane@fcllc.org to express interest by June 30th (or sooner!). Look for more "blurbs" in the bulletin and newsletters to come!

Outreach News

Outreach Focus for June

The month of June is designated to bring awareness to the town of Holly, Colorado.

Holly is a town in Prowers County, Colorado with a population of 1,048 residents (based on 2000 census). It is the easternmost town in the state, just two miles from the Kansas border. On March 28, 2007, this small town was hit by a violent and deadly tornado with winds over 140mph. This devastating storm took the lives of 29-year-old Rosemary Rosales (died on March 29) and 78-year-old Delores Burns (died on April 26). It also killed many livestock. Roughly one third of the homes in Holly were damaged by the tornado, with 48 of these homes being destroyed and deemed uninhabitable. The town is now in the process of rebuilding.

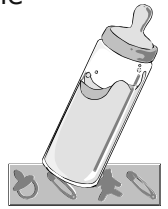

To support our fellow Coloradans, Faith Community Lutheran Church will be giving money to help in their rebuilding efforts. FCLC Outreach Committee has designated funds to be used to help repair Holly's only city park in the center of town. Gateway Park sustained heavy damage to its playground equipment, shelter and fences as well as destroying many old trees in the park. A more detailed story about the needs of the park can be found at: http://cbs4denver.com/payit4ward/local\_story\_116233419.html.

The Town of Holly also has its own website: www.townofholly.com/tornado\_volunteers.html. If you're interested in donating directly to the repair of Holly's Gateway Park, you can send a check to: Town of Holly, P.O. Box 548, Holly, CO 81047. Be sure to specify "Tornado Relief Fund – Gateway Park Repair".

Life Choices "Change for Life" Baby Bottle Campaign

Upcoming Local Outreach Projects

Mark your calendars. We need your help as these projects aren't successful without you! We need six-eight adult volunteers to serve lunch at the OUR Center. We also need 20+ volunteers to pre-make meals and serve them for the workers at Habitat for Humanity. If you're interested in helping with these, please contact Tami Musfeldt (tami.m@comcast.net)

Learn more about them and their adventures this summer.

Turn pages to earn points that benefit other horses: The Colorado Therapeutic Riding Center helps promote the physical, psychological and social well-being of persons with disabilities as they interact with a therapeutic team consisting of a horse, an instructor and/or a therapist, and volunteers.

Every page the Faith Circuit Readers read this summer will count as points to earn needed supplies for the Riding Center. You may see salt blocks and other horsey needs accumulating as the total pages go higher and higher.

As your reading list gets longer, you will earn Circuit Reader prizes to add to your summer fun. A special treat awaits the outstanding readers at the end of the adventure. SADDLE UP AND SEE HOW FAR YOU RIDE!!

ALL AGES MAY BECOME CIRCUIT READERS. [Not-yet-readers can earn credits for no more than three books per week that are read to them by Mom or Dad. Board books – BB classification – do not count toward prizes or page credits.]

Ask the librarian for your saddle bags (a reading list on which you will write the title of each book you read ... very important for prizes.) Check out a book or two from the FCLC Library that you would like to read. Only books checked out after June 3 can be credited for prizes.

After you read a book, return it to the library and chose another ... and another ... and...

All about Administration

from Susan Moller

Director of Business Administration

by Susan Moller

About.....FCLC Finances

Currently our general giving is approximately 87% of our budget. Last year at this time it was 91% of the budget. When giving is less than budget, our ministries must spend less than they proposed for their 2007 budgets. FCLC has always been and continues to be very blessed financially. As we approach summer, please remember your offerings. One method which many people like is the Simply Giving program. This allows FCLC to receive your offerings electronically, including when you are on summer vacation! If you would like to know more about this program, please call me.

About..... Donations through your credit card

In addition to Simply Giving, Thrivent Financial for Lutherans also sponsors a credit card giving program. If you would like to make your contributions with your credit card on a recurring basis, this is the program for you. Let me know if you are interested in signing up for this program or if you have any questions about it.

About.....Another Update on Our New Education Wing Project

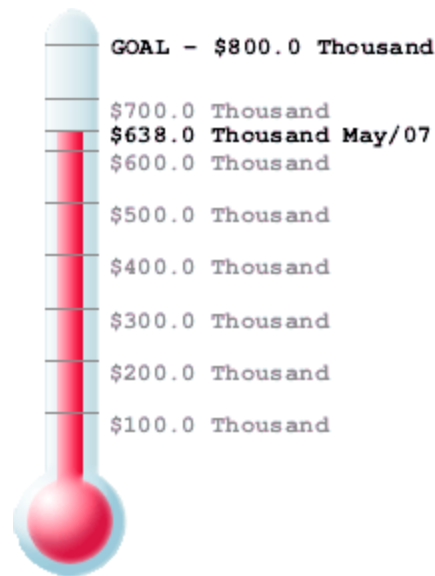

Below is another update on where we are at on paying for our new education wing. Our goal is to have the loan on this project paid off by December 2007.

TOTAL Project Cost is $800,000

Project began January 2005

$638,445 has been paid through

Stephen Ministry... welcomes Stephanie Mason as a new Stephen Leader. Stephanie was commissioned as a Stephen Minister at Faith in February 2005. She went to Corpus Christi, TX, a couple of months ago for a week of intensive Stephen Ministry Leadership Training. We commissioned Stephanie as a Stephen Leader for our church on March 11, 2007. Stephanie has been employed by non-profit agencies and is currently employed by Group Publishing in Loveland. We welcome Stephanie's enthusiasm and leadership.

Stephen Ministry is a one-to-one, confidential, Christian care-giving ministry. If you or someone you know could benefit from having a Christian friend to walk with them while going through difficult times, please let us know.

Julie Baas, Stephen Ministry Leader

Pastoral Care

What does it take to become a Stephen Minister (and what you receive in return)?

Okay, admit it. Stephen Ministry has crossed your mind a few times. You might even have picked up a brochure or talked to the pastor about it. But now you want to take a closer look at the idea of becoming a Stephen Minister. You're wondering: Is this right for me? Following are some guidelines that might help you in your decision-making.

Gifts

A Stephen Minister is a person with the gift of mercy, who shows compassion and gives encouragement to and intercedes for those he or she cares for. Many Stephen Ministers say that they receive much more from the caring relationship with their care receiver than they give.

Commitment

A Stephen Minister devotes time, energy, and resources to this ministry. In return, a Stephen Minister has the chance to participate in meaningful ministry, make a major difference in another person's life, and grow as a joyous child of God.

Training

A Stephen Minister completes 50 hours of training before ever meeting with a care receiver. He or she learns about listening, assertiveness, confidentiality, and many other aspects of care-giving. After completing the initial training, there is continuing education. Stephen Ministers find that their relationships become richer and deeper at home, church, and work and with friends.

Dedicated Service

A Stephen Minister serves wholeheartedly. This isn't a casual ministry. It involves prayer, thought, consideration, study, and commitment. In return, the Stephen Minister receives grateful thanks from his or her care receiver, our Stephen Leaders, the congregation, and our Lord.

Accountability

A Stephen Minister is accountable to God, the congregation, the Stephen Leaders, the other Stephen Ministers, and the care receiver. In return, he or she receives support, encouragement, and guidance in Small Group Peer Supervision.

Continuous Learning

A Stephen Minister is open to adjusting and adapting his or her care-giving to fit the needs of the care receiver. He or she learns more about care-giving at each meeting with a care receiver and at each supervision session. Stephen Ministry is an experience of continuous learning, growth, and joy.

A new training class for Stephen Ministers is starting soon. The Holy Spirit may be calling you to the joy, commitment, growth, meaning, training, service, and care of being a Stephen Minister. Pray for God's guidance as you consider this opportunity.

WORSHIP TEAM CORNER

For the summer months, we are doing something new! Our worship teams will be combining. Our LOF Youth Worship Team, which is usually scheduled for the first Sunday of the month, will merge with our adult teams! We are very excited about this change! Come September though, our LOF will return to their first Sunday of the month slot! The change is due to the number of folks coming and going during the summer months.

The bluegrass group by His mark will be leading our worship services August 4 and 5. So mark your calendar now. On Sunday, August 5, during education hour, they will be holding a "jam session" in the sanctuary for all those who want to come and sing along.

Thank you to all of those who have signed up for special music this summer. Our worship will indeed be enhanced by your gifts of music.

If you are out and about this summer and find yourself worshipping at another church, please bring me back the bulletin so we can see what is going on out in the world! If you hear a song that you like and you think would be great for FCLC, grab their music director and get a copy of the music.

Many thanks and many blessings,
Diane Sell
Director of Worship Teams

Mission Verse

God's Spirit is on me:
He chose me to preach the Message of Good News to the poor, Sent me to announce pardon of prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind,
To set the burdened and battered free, to announce,
"This is God's year to act!"

Luke 4:18-19
